

Catering Runner Vacature

Catering Runners Wanted

Freelance or Zero-Hour Contract

Professional Food Concept - Daytime Hours

The Good Food Company - Amsterdam

Due to the strong growth of our corporate catering and daily lunch services, we are looking for several Catering Runners to join our team on a freelance (ZZP) or zero-hour contract basis.

Are you energetic, presentable, and proactive? Do you enjoy being on the road, working with people, and representing a professional food company? Then we would love to meet you!

Why work at The Good Food Company?

At The Good Food Company we deliver fresh, healthy, and high-quality corporate catering in Amsterdam every day. Our meals are prepared fresh each morning with local and seasonal ingredients and delivered sustainably throughout the city.

What sets us apart:

- Working in a young, ambitious food concept
- High-end corporate catering at a professional level
- Energetic and close-knit team
- Daytime office hours only
- Dynamic workdays – no two days are the same
- Strong focus on quality, presentation and service

What will you do?

As a Catering Runner you are an important representative of The Good Food Company. You ensure our orders are delivered neatly, on time and professionally to companies across Amsterdam.

Your responsibilities include:

- Delivering catering and lunch orders
- Preparing and checking orders
- Setting up and breaking down catering locations
- Client contact on site
- Ensuring attractive and professional presentation of deliveries
- Supporting the operations team where needed

Who are we looking for?

We are looking for colleagues who:

- Are presentable and sociable

- Are energetic and reliable
- Enjoy hands-on and active work
- Are good team players
- Can work well under pressure
- Take responsibility independently
- Are flexible

Experience is a plus, but motivation, attitude and energy are most important to us.

What we offer:

- A role in a fast-growing catering concept
- Mainly daytime shifts (office hours)
- Freelance or zero-hour contract
- Young and ambitious team
- Professional yet informal atmosphere
- Varied and dynamic work
- Market-competitive compensation
- Opportunities for growth